

for his contribution to the work of this Convention.

Resolution No. 51, by the President and Delegates Tawes, J. Clark and James.

A RESOLUTION expressing the gratitude of the Convention to Miss Joyce McNeil, Chief of the Secretarial Pool, and her staff.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers to make a motion with respect to Resolutions 31 to 43 and 46 to 51.

DELEGATE POWERS: I move that all interfering rules be suspended so we may consider Resolutions 46 through 51 and 31 to 43.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: It requires a roll call vote.

Is there any discussion?

A vote Aye is a vote in favor of suspending any interfering rules; a vote No is a vote against.

Cast your vote.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 116 votes in the affirmative and 0 in the negative, the motion carries. The interfering rules are suspended.

The question now arises on the adoption of Resolutions 30 through 43 inclusive, and 46 through 51 inclusive.

Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered. Resolutions 30 to 43 inclusive and 46 to 51 inclusive are adopted.

(Applause.)

DELEGATE GRANT: Not all the resolutions have yet been distributed. Will they be distributed before the session ends?

THE PRESIDENT: They should have been distributed. They are in the process.

They are all printed. Resolutions No. 36, 40 and 41 are not yet distributed. They will be in the next few minutes.

Delegate Clagett.

DELEGATE CLAGETT: Point of personal privilege.

Throughout the four months that we have been present here and prior to that time I have come to know the Honorable Godfrey Child, Judge and Delegate. I only rise to make a matter of record a contribution made by him of such great proportion. As the freezes wafted from the right side of the chamber in this direction during the early days of our Convention sessions, they brought with them a quality of smoke which this side could not but appreciate, and ever increasingly more so.

It was thirty years ago that I used to smoke a pipe. I gave it up because it was such a nuisance.

As I sat here and began to appreciate that our occupation was going to be a sedentary one, the desire came back again. I turned to Judge Child and said, "What is that mixture you are smoking?" The reply was, with great "laconicness", if that is the correct word: "It is my own mixture." And that is where the matter rested about three or four days.

We became more friendly and I said, "Judge, can I have a little bit of tobacco?" He gave me one pipe full, and that is where the matter rested for another four or five days. Then there came a time when the judge came over and said, "This is my personal mixture." That is where it rested for the week. Then he came over and said, "This is the way the mixture has been arrived at over my thirty years of smoking it, but I give it to you, and I give it to you alone."

If this were only between me and Judge Child himself I would not feel it of the stature to rise and state it of record. But as I began to smoke his mixture, not knowing what it was, it began to affect Delegate Carter (Hickman) in back of me, and there came a day when he leaned forward and said, "What is that tobacco you are smoking?" I said, "It is Judge Child's, and he told me I could not tell anyone else what it was, and do not know, frankly." That is the way the matter rested for the first month of our being together here.

Then Judge Child came over—and by this time we had debated, and there had
